

I know it can be scary moving up to high school but as soon as you arrive everyone will welcome you with open arms and make you feel comfortable. You might be worried about not having friends from primary in your classes and everyone if most likely feeling the same but you will soon make lots more, some of my best friends I had not met this time last year. You may also be nervous about getting lost but after a few days you will realise that it's not difficult at all. High School isn't something to worry about, it will be some of the best years of your lives and you will enjoy it immensely.
